

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
PANJAB UNIVERSITY, CHANDIGARH
AND
CENTRAL SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS ORGANISATION, CHANDIGARH.

Preamble:

The need for close cooperation in terms of research and academic activities between universities and national Institutes on the project entitled "Centre for Applied Human Genome Studies and Research" has been realised both by Panjab University (PU) and Central Scientific Instruments Organisation, Sector 30, Chandigarh (CSIO) with the hope that it will contribute in national development, the reason being the academic excellence of Panjab University combined with the excellent infrastructure and manpower at the CSIO. With this background in view, the Memorandum of Understanding between these two Institutions on the following lines, is being signed for the next five years beginning May 2001:

1. that the Panjab University, Chandigarh welcomes the participation of Central Scientific Instruments Organisation, Sector 30, Chandigarh (CSIO), in the establishment of a Centre for Applied Human Genome Studies and Research on the PU Campus.
2. that full cooperation by the Central Scientific Instruments Organisation, Sector 30, Chandigarh (CSIO), would be extended to the University as and when required for the study of Human Genome and research.
3. That the Vice-Chancellor or his nominee will coordinate the activities of this Centre with the Central Scientific Instruments Organisation, Sector 30, Chandigarh (CSIO).
